JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE.

---

Monday, February 25, 2019.

Met according to adjournment at eleven o'clock A.M., in an Informal Session, with Mrs. Haddad of Somerset in the Chair (having been appointed by the Speaker, under authority conferred by Rule 5, to perform the duties of the Chair).

Prayer was offered by Father Rick Walsh of the Paulist Fathers, Chaplain of the House, as follows:

God of Righteousness and Justice, we pray today for our legislators and their staff as they forge ahead this session.

Prayer.

Today we honor one of the names on our chamber's fresco. Theophilus Parsons was born on Feb 24, 1750 in Newbury. A graduate of Harvard College he studied law and became a member of this legislative body in 1787. He helped John Adams draft our state constitution. He later helped author the initial amendments to the U.S. Constitution that enabled Massachusetts delegates to ratify it. From 1806 to 1813 he served as Chief Justice of the MA Supreme Court. As the court leader, his decisions on commerce helped define the rights and responsibilities of corporations in the early days of the nation.

May God continue to bless our Commonwealth.

At the request of the Chair (Mrs. Haddad), the members, guests and employees joined with her in reciting the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Pledge of allegiance.
